

“Hill at Moldovka”

Moldovka, Ukraine — August 1st, 1941

The battle of Uman would take place from mid July to the first week of August. The Axis offensive operations had resulted in encirclements of the participating Soviet Armies. Among the Axis forces were the Hungarian Army’s Mobile Corps. The Mobile Corps would form the southwestern cornerstone of the Axis encirclement. On August 1st, the Hungarian 2nd Motorized Corps had crossed the Bug River and attacked the heights west of Moldovka. As the Hungarians occupied the hill, they would see a Soviet counter-attack forming up and moving towards their positions.

Board Configuration:

Boards 78 & 63

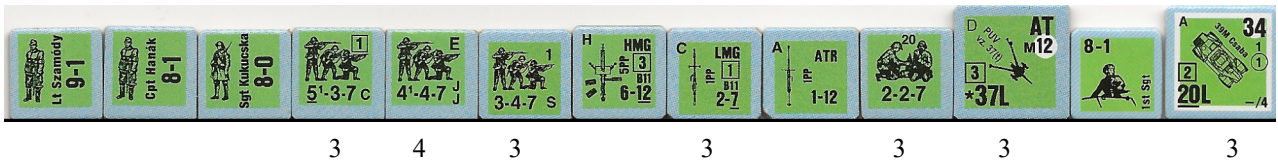

VICTORY CONDITIONS: The Russian Player wins at game end if there are no good order Hungarian units on or adjacent to a level 3 Hill location on board 78.

Hungarian Player Sets up first	1	2	3	4	5
Russian Player moves first

Elements 18th Army (ELR 2) (SAN 3) (Set up: board 63 hexes numbered equal to or greater than 4)

Elements of 2nd Motorized Rifle Brigade (ELR 4) (SAN 4) (Set up: on any hill hexes of Hill 727 on board 78)

Special Rules/Notes:

1. EC are moderate with no wind.
2. Kindling is N.A.
3. Bore Sighting is N.A.
4. Prior to game start the Hungarian Player makes a secret dr. The number rolled represents the number of 1 squad Foxholes available to the Hungarian Force.
5. Russian tanks may not begin the game in motion.

Aftermath: The Soviet forces counterattacked the Hungarians with twelve light tanks and a small force of supporting infantry. The Hungarian 37mm 36M Anti-tank guns and 39M Csaba armored cars would knock out four of the attacking tanks. With a third of their force destroyed, the Soviets would abort the attack and fall back into Moldovka.